The Client is not permitted to: (i) establish a website specifically relating to the Event; or (ii) other than in accordance with Condition 11.2, otherwise promote or advertise its association with the Event or Informa or undertake any promotional activity in connection with the Event or Informa in any way otherwise than as set out in the Package or with the prior written consent of Informa.

13.2 Where the date(s) of the Event are changed to new date(s) that are within twelve (12) calendar months; or, where the Event is part of an annual series, the rescheduled Event replaces the series edition in the following Calendar Year, this Agreement will continue in full force and effect and the obligations of the parties shall be deemed to apply to the Event on the new date(s) (or the Event in the following Calendar Year as the case may be) in the same way that they would have applied to the original Event. or use of the Materials constitutes an infringement of the Intellectual Property Rights of any third party or is in breach of any applicable law.

16.6 Nothing in these Conditions shall exclude or limit liability which cannot be excluded by the applicable law.

17. Confidential Information

For the purposes of this Condition 7 "Confidential Information" means information disclosed by a party (the "Disclosing Party") to another (the "Receiving Party") relating to the Disclosing Party's business, products, affairs and finances, clients, customers and trade secrets including, without limitation, customer lists, billing practices, contractual arrangements, technical data and know-how. For the avoidance of doubt, the fact of the Client's participation in the Event shall not be deemed to be Confidential Information. The Receiving Party shall not (except in the proper performance of its obligations under the Agreement) during the continuance of the Agreement or at any time thereafter use or disclose to any person, firm or company (and shall use its best endeavours to prevent the publication or disclosure of) any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party. This restriction does not apply to: (i) any information in the public domain other than in breach of the Agreement; (ii) information already in the lawful possession of the Receiving Party before its receipt from the Disclosing Party; (iii) information obtained from a third party who is free to divulge the same; (iv) disclosure of information which is required by law or other competent authorities; and (v) information developed or created by one party independently of the others.

18. Data Protection

18.1 For the purposes of this Condition 8, the terms personal data, controller, processor, processing, data subject and supervisory authority shall have the meanings ascribed to them under the Regulation.

18.2 For the purposes of this Agreement and either party's processing of personal data in connection with this Agreement, the parties agree that each party acts as a data controller. Each party shall (i) only process personal data in compliance with, and shall not cause itself or the other party to be in breach of, Data Protection Law, and (ii) act reasonably in providing such information and assistance as the other party may reasonably request to enable the other party to comply with its obligations under Data Protection Law. If either party becomes aware of a Reportable Breach relating to the processing of personal data in connection with this Agreement, it shall (i) provide the other party with reasonable details of such Reportable Breach without undue delay, and (ii) act reasonably in co-operating with the other party in respect of any communications or notifications to be issued to any data subjects and/or supervisory authorities in respect of the Reportable Breach. If either party receives any communication from any supervisory authority relating to the processing of personal data in connection with this Agreement, it shall provide the other party with reasonable details of such communication, and (ii) act reasonably in co-operating with the other party in respect of any response to the same. Informa collects, uses and protects personal data in accordance with its privacy policy, which can be found here: <https://www.informa.com/privacy-policy/>.

18.3 Without prejudice to the generality of Condition 18.2, Client acknowledges and agrees that if it receives any list containing personal data from Informa as part of the Package (a "Data List"), it shall: (i) keep the Data List confidential and not disclose it to any third party; (ii) only use the Data List for the purpose of making an initial approach to contacts on the Data List in accordance with their engagement with Client's products and/or services as facilitated by the Package and, if applicable, as has been otherwise agreed with Informa in writing; (iii) securely delete or put beyond use all or any part of the Data List upon Informa's reasonable request or by such time as is required by Data Protection Law, whichever is earlier; and (iv) provide Informa with reasonable details of any enquiry, complaint, notice or other communication it receives from any supervisory authority relating to Client's use of the Data List, and act reasonably in co-operating with Informa in respect of Client's response to the same. Client acknowledges and agrees that Informa shall only be obliged to provide Client with all or part of any Data List to the extent that it is legally permitted to do so and Informa shall not be liable to Client if the volume of personal data provided to Client is less than anticipated as a result of Informa's compliance with Data Protection Law.

19. General

19.1 Without prejudice to Condition 3, if, by reason of any Force Majeure Event Informa is delayed in or prevented from performing any of its obligations under the Agreement, then such delay or non-performance shall not be deemed to be a breach of the Agreement and no loss or damage shall be claimed by the Client by reason thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Condition 19.1 shall excuse the Client from the payment of the Fees under the Agreement.

19.2 Each party shall comply with the applicable requirements regarding unfair competition and shall adhere to the highest standards of ethics on a global basis and shall refrain from corrupt business practices and shall prohibit, directly and indirectly, public or private bribery, kickbacks or any other activity that would give rise to a conflict of interest that could adversely influence the judgment, objectivity or loyalty to the business activities and assignments under this Agreement.

19.3 Nothing in the Agreement shall create, or be deemed to create, a partnership or joint venture or relationship of employer and employee or principal and agent between the parties.

19.4 If and to the extent that there is any conflict between these Conditions and the Application Form, the terms of the Application Form shall prevail.

19.5 Each party acknowledges that the Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in relation to the Event and that it does not rely upon any oral or written representation made to it by the other. No variation of the Agreement shall be effective unless made in writing signed by or on behalf of each of the parties to the Agreement.

19.6 No rights under the Agreement may be assigned by the Client without the prior written consent of Informa. The Client may not sub-contract or delegate in any manner any of its obligations under the Agreement to any third party or agent without the prior written consent of Informa.

19.7 A person who is not a party to the Agreement shall have no rights under or in connection with it.

19.8 No failure by either party in exercising any right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver of the same.

19.9 If any provision of the Agreement (or any part of any provision) is found by a court or other authority of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed not to form part of the Agreement and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of the Agreement shall not be affected.
